

Salsa Chicken

Makes 6 servings

4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts (about 3½ pounds)

1 jar (16 ounces) salsa

1 can (about 15 ounces) black beans or kidney beans

1 cup frozen corn

4 ounces cream cheese

12 flour tortillas

Hot cooked rice (optional)

Lime wedges (optional)

Optional toppings: shredded Cheddar cheese, lettuce, chopped fresh cilantro

1. Place chicken, salsa, beans and corn in slow cooker. Cover; cook on LOW 6 to 8 hours or on HIGH 3 to 4 hours.
2. Remove chicken to large cutting board; shred with two forks. Add cream cheese to cooking liquid; stir until cheese is melted. Stir shredded chicken back into slow cooker.
3. Serve in tortillas with rice and lime wedges, if desired. Top as desired.

Courtesy Susan Dean